Sarasota, FL (PRWEB) October 02, 2014

The Retirement Industry Trust Association (RITA), the voice of the alternative asset industry, announces an intensive training camp on investing alternative assets in IRAs to be held on Oct. 20-21, 2014.

The program, presented in San Diego, will feature immediately relevant information for trust companies, compliance officers, RIAs, TPAs and professionals involved in the fast growing self-directed IRA industry.

Speakers will share two days of up-to-the-minute, interactive education on current issues and opportunities. In the round table discussions, participants will get answers to their specific questions, learn about industry trends and network with industry influencers, top experts and colleagues.

Attendees will be first to learn the latest on topics such as:

- Regulatory and legislative proposed changes
- Crowdfunding Update
- How to help Ponzi-proof investments – nationally acclaimed author and CNBC contributor, Kathy Phelps (participants receive a complimentary copy of her book)
- Emerging alternative assets – Klaas Baks, PhD, Founder, Center for Alternative Investments, Emory University
- Best practices for compliance and operations
- And a lot more

Seats are limited. Take advantage of the early bird rate ($400 savings) through October 3, midnight Eastern Time.
